

Many a fair girl mistook his speculative fancies for vague revelations of his secret feelings. They knew not that his feelings were not but the echoes of that voice which was ever calling through the desolate chambers of his heart. He had no confidence in woman, no reliance on the permanence of her emotions. The 'pearl of price,' the faith which was his birth-right, had been dissolved in the cup which passion mingled.

DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

JOHN S. SAYWARD, Editor.

THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1844.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT,
HENRY CLAY,
OF KENTUCKY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
THEODORE FRELINGHUYSEN,
OF NEW JERSEY.

SEE FIRST PAGE.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

THE Whigs of the several cities, towns, and plantations, in the State of Maine, are requested to select delegates to meet in Convention, at Augusta on WEDNESDAY the 26th day of JUNE next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to nominate a candidate for Governor, two candidates for Electors at large of President and Vice President, and adopt such other measures as the present crisis of the country, and the interest of the Whig party may demand. The ratio of Representation, will be as follows:

Towns and plantations of 1000 inhabitants or less, will be entitled to two delegates; of more than 1000 and less than 2000 to four delegates; of more than 2000 and less than 4000 to eight delegates; of more than 4000 and less than 8000 to ten delegates; of more than 8000 to fifteen delegates.

By order of the State Committee,
Bangor, May 22, 1844.

Mass Convention of the People.

IN pursuance of the recommendation of the Legislative Convention held on the 17th of February last, and in accordance with the expressed wishes of the Whigs, notice is given that a MASS MEETING of the PEOPLE of Maine, friendly to the election of HENRY CLAY and THEODORE FRELINGHUYSEN, will be held at Augusta on WEDNESDAY the 26th of June, A. D. 1844, at 11 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of responding to the National and State Nominations and the adoption of such measures as will secure the success of these nominations, and to promote a sound State policy—encourage and protect our own labor and industry—and insure the complete success of true National principles. All citizens in favor of the WHIG AMERICAN TARIFF, and of the distinctive policy to be pursued by the next Administration, as set forth at the great National Convention at Baltimore, are invited to be present and to join in efforts to secure the ascendancy of Whig principles in Maine, and to place the prosperity of this State as well as the Nation upon a firm and durable basis. By order of the State Committee.
Bangor, May 22, 1844.

Van Buren's opinion of the present Tariff.

I have at no time, nor any where, hesitated to express my decided disapprobation of the Tariff act of the last session, as well in respect to the principle upon which it is founded as to its details.

MARTIN VAN BUREN.

A slight incident has just transpired reminding us very strongly of the prejudice there is existing even in many cultivated minds against labor, and the different degrees of degradation attached to each sort. It unfortunately happens that this prejudice against labor is almost invariably transferred to the laborer, and from this cause has arisen many hurtful influences in society, such as idleness, dissipation and extravagance with poverty, distress and ruin. That men should have a choice of pursuit—a strong preference for one kind of labor over another is very natural, but how one kind of labor should be more honorable than another does not seem so clear; especially is it strange that any honest labor should be considered degrading. Such an idea cannot be sustained by reason and judgment, and we call it, therefore, a prejudice.

The true idea is to regard all honest labor as honorable. Labor is one of the conditions of our existence, and unpleasant labor must, more or less, engage the time of all, but dirty work does not involve the fact of an evil mind. In a world requiring much labor, and in a community where the great means of support and of acquisition depend upon the labor of the hands, it is good policy as well as good philosophy to have labor occupy its true position, and that no man who labors, be made to suffer in his reputation, or standing, even through prejudice, on account of the kind of honest work in which he is engaged. The degraded man is the delicate fingered idler, who sponges his living out of others, instead of properly employing the powers of body and mind which God has given him, with which not only to provide his own living, but to aid his suffering fellow man. The true man is the busy man, at work with hand and head and heart, and his is an honorable position in whatever department he toils.

We will not now relate the incident alluded to, nor is it material since the number of those suggesting the same thoughts are not few.

Abner Rogers, Jr. who killed the late Warden of Massachusetts State Prison, and was sent to the lunatic asylum at Worcester, on Friday last, near the close of the evening prayers, became impatient and requested his attendant to permit him to retire. The attendant replied that the services would soon be through, when not a minute elapsed before he sprang through the window, with great force, taking out four panes with the sash. The fall was about sixteen feet. When found he was senseless, and remained so until he expired on Sunday.

Our thanks are due to Jerome & Co's and to Gidman's Expresses for Boston and New York papers received by the last boat in advance of the Mail.

John Tyler's Movements on account of the Texas Treaty.

The National Intelligencer contains the Message of Mr Tyler, together with the accompanying documents relative to military movements in reference to the Texas Treaty. This message and the documents were presented to the Senate in answer to a resolution of inquiry. The message says:—"I have to inform the Senate that, in consequence of the declaration of Mexico communicated to this Government, and by me laid before Congress at the opening of its present session, announcing the determination of Mexico to regard as a declaration of war against her by the United States the definitive ratification of any treaty with Texas, annexing the territory of that Republic to the U States, and the hope and belief entertained by the Executive that the treaty with Texas for that purpose would be speedily approved and ratified by the Senate, it was regarded by the Executive to have become emphatically its duty to concentrate in the Gulf of Mexico and its vicinity, as a precautionary measure, as large a portion of the home squadron under the command of Captain Conner as could well be drawn together; and, at the same time to assemble at Fort Jessup, on the borders of Texas, as large a military force as the demands of the service at other encampments would authorize to be detached.

The accompanying documents consist of letters and orders from the War and Navy departments.

This first is a letter to the President from the Secretary of War transmitting the orders issued from his department which have reference to the movement of troops to the Southwestern border. These orders and letters state that the sixteen companies composing the 3d and 4th regiment were ordered from Jefferson barracks (Missouri) to Fort Jessup, where there were already seven companies of the 2d dragons, and that the force at Fort Jessup, near Natchitoches, was otherwise increased to twenty-three companies; or about eleven hundred and fifty men. The command of this post was given to Gen. Z. Taylor, and on the 23rd of April a 'confidential' communication was addressed to him, stating the force that will be under his command, and gives the following instructions:

"You will take prompt measures, in the first instance by a confidential officer, and subsequently by the ordinary mail or special express, as you may deem necessary, to put yourself in communication with the President of Texas, in order to inform him of your present position and force, and to learn and to transmit to this office (all confidentially) whether any and what external dangers may threaten that Government or its people. Should such danger be found to exist, and appear to be imminent, you will collect and march the force above indicated to the Sabine river, but not to proceed beyond the frontier without further instructions, keeping in readiness, in the case supposed, all necessary means of transportation, as well as ample stores of subsistence and ammunition."

List of United States vessels of war now cruising on, or under orders for the Gulf of Mexico.

Frigate Potomac, Capt. F. M. Newell.
Sloop Vincennes, Commander F. Buchanan.
Brig Somers, Commander J. T. Gerry, (temporarily commanded by Lieutenant T. W. Brent.)
Under orders at Norfolk, and ready for sea.
Sloop Vanhalla, Commander J. S. Chauncey.
Sloop Falmouth, Commander J. R. Sands.
Steamer Union, Lieutenant Commander H. H. Bell.
Brig Bainbridge, Commander Newman, at N. York, for repairs.

All the above are attached to the home squadron, Commander David Conner.

The sloop Preble, Commander T. W. Freelon, (not attached to the home squadron,) is on a temporary cruise among the West Indian Islands and to the ports in Central America, &c., and will return shortly to the United States.

The brig Lawrence, Commander, Gardner, will be ordered, as soon as she is ready for sea, to proceed to the West Indies, to report to Com. Conner for orders.

The following among other instructions are given to Commodore Conner:—

You will in your discretion, employ the vessels under your command, in cruising in the Gulf of Mexico, so as to communicate frequently with Galveston; and occasionally show yourself at or before Vera Cruz, with such deviations to other parts of your cruising grounds, as in your judgement may be best calculated to effect the object of your general and special instructions.

"You will be cautious in committing no violations of the rights of others, but resist and punish aggressions on ours. If, while the question of ratification is pending, an armed force shall threaten the invasion of Texas, you will remonstrate with the commanding officer, and you will accompany your remonstrance with the assurance that the President of the United States will regard the execution of such a hostile purpose towards Texas, under such circumstances, as evincing a most unfriendly feeling towards the United States; and which, in the event of the treaty's ratification, must lead to actual hostilities with this country.

If you observe any preparations for an invasion, you will without delay communicate the information to this Department, that the President may submit the same to Congress."

The Bay State Democrat states that a lad about 7 years of age, son of Mr. Hugh Harrigan, of East Boston, fell to the bottom of a well of the depth of seventy feet, on Sunday afternoon. The little fellow was immediately taken out, and was found to be but slightly injured.

Peley W. Chandler, Esq., has been chosen by the City Council of Boston Orator for the approaching Fourth of July.

Later from the Coast of Africa.

The brig Atlanta, Capt. Lawlin, arrived at New York, 30th, in 35 days from the Coast of Africa, last from Monrovia, bringing intelligence some days later.

The Rev Mr. Seys had just returned from an excursion in the interior, having explored the country for 200 miles, and planted two missionary stations at the extreme end of his journey. This part of the country has never been visited before, and he represents it as being very beautiful. He was accompanied by the Rev. B. R. Mallory, Rev. E. Johnson, Rev. A. F. Russell, and Rev. J. H. Stevens.

The Colony at Monrovia was in a most flourishing condition, and enjoying excellent health. Business was good, and provisions plenty.

An American brig, from Havana, in the river Galenas, having a cargo of slave goods and suspected of being connected in the slave trade, was detained by the British, and prevented from landing her cargo. The British steamer Henlopen, came around to Monrovia and towed the U. S. ship Decatur up the river, to investigate the affair.

The British brig of war Perrett made a second attack upon the slave ship Crawford, after the ship had her cargo of 1000 slaves on board, and was beaten off by the ship. There was some severe fighting on both sides.

Business is very good all along the coast. The slave factory, owned by Martenas, a Spaniard, at Galenas, is carrying on as extensive business as ever.

From Wynberg and from Robben Island reports say that a slight shock of an earthquake was felt at these two points.

Late and Important from Mexico.

Vera Cruz papers of the 30th ult. via Havana are received which says it appears that at just about the same time that Tyler signed the treaty of Texas, the Diario del Gobierno de Mexico remarked as follows:—"What the Hesperia and the Correo Frances, of to-day, say in regard to the annexation of Texas to the U. States, cannot be true, and we have reasons for believing it not so. Our Government has received its official correspondence from Washington, the contents of which is just the contrary of what these papers say. But be it as it may, our Government is determined not to lose the usurped territory, and to the end she will use her efforts to recover it, that the honor and dignity of the nation shall not suffer."

It is stated that the most determined hostility evidently existed, and it was apparent that it would be resisted to the last extremity.

Accident on the Lowell Railroad.

We learn from the Boston Mail that on Monday last the upward train ran off the track near the watering place at Woburn, and the engineer, Mr. Caldwell, was instantly killed. The fireman was very badly injured by the boiling water, and his leg broken, so that he will not probably survive. The engine, tender, and baggage car were dashed in pieces, but the passenger cars remained on the track, and the passengers were not injured. The accident was caused by a broken bolt on one of the rails.

The Emperor of Russia was expected to arrive in England about the second week of this month, in order to pay his respects to the Queen.

MARRIED.

In Dover, by Samuel Palmer, Esq., Mr. Cyrus H. Durbin to Miss C. D. A. McLeod, all of D.

DIED.

In this city on the 23d inst, PARK HOLLAND, Esq., aged 91 years. Funeral from his late residence on York street this (Thursday) afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Mr. Holland was among the last of the survivors of that noble band of patriots, the officers of the Revolutionary Army, and was one of the earliest pioneers of this Eastern State, and long known as "the original surveyor," of most of the towns in this section. A man highly esteemed for his kind heart, honest life and faithful services. We hope to be furnished with a more extended notice of this worthy old man, who has gone down to his grave in peace, after a life of most meritorious usefulness.

NEW YORK, August 3, 1842.
"Messrs. Sands—Gentlemen: Under a feeling sense of gratitude inherent to us all when suddenly relieved from suffering and disease, I now, as an act of justice due to you, and with a view of relieving the afflicted, make known to the world the inestimable benefit I have received from the use of your Sarsaparilla. In the year 1832 I sailed from England in a vessel bound for Quebec, and while on the passage first discovered the disease which after proved to be a sore affliction; and truly I can say, from the crown of my head to the sole of my foot there was no soundness in me. From the time first mentioned down until the present, a period of more than ten years, I have suffered all that human nature was capable of bearing. I have been under the care of the most distinguished physicians both in this country and in England, visited Bath, Cheltenham, Bristol and Gloucester, tried various specifics, among others a large quantity of Swaim's Painex, used sulphur baths, &c. As a last resort
I was induced to wrap myself in a tar ointment;
keep myself secluded, shunned by all, myself also shunning. I was induced to believe my case a hopeless one.
In August last, by the advice of friends, I went to the New York City Hospital, and there was told that my case was incurable. The disease now enveloped my whole body, rendering me almost helpless; the skin thickened and cracked, and blood and matter ran, and life itself became almost a burden.
A few weeks since I was induced to use your Sarsaparilla by hearing it so highly recommended, but having spent nearly $3,000 without obtaining but little relief. After using it a short time, I found myself better, and now, by using six or eight bottles, costing me less than ten dollars, I am well. Yes, I certify and declare to the world, that after spending nearly $3,000 in traveling and doctoring, and suffering more than can be told, I was perfectly cured by using your invaluable preparation of Sarsaparilla;
and I now recommend it to all similarly afflicted.
Those wishing to know further particulars will find me at my residence, No. 27 Warren street, New York, where I shall be happy to communicate any thing in relation to the above cure.
